

EATON SQUARE GARDENSVisitors' Comments - London Open Garden Squares Weekend - 12 June 2011

- A wonderful garden. Great stripy lawns. Marvellous bedding areas. The best things is the view when you come in with the lovely water features. Loved all the sculptures
- Lovely garden, excellently maintained and with lots of interesting things to look at
- Garden is outstanding. Gardener is very helpful and knowledgeable
- Beautiful and interesting garden with interesting tree specimens
- Beautiful, restful, surprising. Sculptures etc go really well with the garden. Loved the shaded hidden woodland part. Liked marrying of purple / red leaved plants with pale creamy leaves
- Thank you for the lovely gardens - a privilege to see them
- Beautiful planting and the trees are wonderful
- A delightful experience - thank you!
- Gardens beautiful, music wonderful, weather typical!
- Amazing - astonishing - immaculate
- Beautiful grande - wish I lived here!
- Great gardens - I love them
- Thanks to the Garden Committee for opening for London Open Garden weekend - what a spectacular garden for the residents and, today only, for "Joe Public"
- We recognised some of the trees. We enjoyed the Punch and Judy. Very good hosta. No slugs or snails. Very pretty planting
- Wonderful range of work, very powerful
- The best garden I've seen all year - magnificent
- Fantastic! One of the most beautiful gardens we've seen - and how lovely to have Punch & Judy!
- Beautiful garden, well worth coming
- Sculptures were very interesting and the specimen trees seemed unusual. It might be useful to label a few more of the plants
- Great steel band!
- Amazing garden
- What an amazing garden. So many plants of interest. Charming gardener too
- Wonderful sculpture. Sorry to have missed the band
- We saved the best till last. Thank you
