

CHESTER SQUARE GARDENS*Visitors' Comments - London Open Garden Squares Weekend - 12 June 2011

- Lovely garden - great leaflet to describe it!
- A delightful oasis away from the hustle and bustle
- How the other half lives! Very well proportioned, not too OTT
- Most impressive plane trees!
- Please could you number actual trees to go with the guide
- Thank you for sharing this London treasure
- Thank you - the grafted tree was very striking
- Lovely garden - interesting trees
- Very tranquil - beautiful rose garden
- Beautiful garden - very peaceful
- Stunning garden and all so beautifully looked after. A huge treat to be allowed in to take a look
- Memorable experience to have enjoyed such a beautiful and well looked after garden
- I am very pleased to have had the chance to visit this lovely garden. Thank you
- By far the nicest garden I've seen today
- Certainly the nicest garden I've seen. The trees are impressive and the rose garden excellent
- Most enjoyable - trees, rose garden etc
- Beautifully well kept garden - the gardeners do a fantastic job and deserve a prize!
- Nice cat
- Admired the well kept grounds and wonderful examples of trees, especially the plane trees (bottle base)
- Well manicured - well kept, tidy gardens. Pleasantly greeted
- Fabulous trees
- The planting and maintenance are excellent. Best so far!
- Beautiful specimen of trees. Gorgeous backdrop. Lovely shaded green space for residents
- Beautiful garden, lovely rose garden
- Very nice well kept garden, beautiful flowers
- Given the weather conditions this year the garden is in excellent condition. The tree work is also first class
